Dear Diary, Today was probably the most scary day of my life! I almost drowned. Yep you heard me but I lived to tell this amazing story. I can't believe it, can you?

It all began this morning when I got in trouble for losing a lamb. You see I was in charge to look after the sheep and I hate to admit it but I fell asleep and an eagle took one of the lambs. And I had no choice but to go home. The traders are coming tomorrow! What am I going to do?

Luckily I had a good idea... I thought it was. I went to Shark's Teeth and to go get auk eggs not the easiest kind to find but it's really good with hunting so I went to a resting ground. I had to wait until one was unguarded so I wait and wait.... and wait until finally my basket was full. But the tide came in the way forward was cut off I had to go back to the resting ground with the auk and... I WAS TRAPPED. The tide came in I felt like a goner. Shadow barked I screamed for help but no answer all was dark but I saw a person out of the corner of my eye. It was a girl she was wearing a hood and she said to me "I'll haul you up" I tied up shadow first and it felt like ages till the rope came back down. I hauled myself up and I was keeping my eyes on shadow who was waiting for me at the top. When I got to the top I realized it wasn't a hood it was just a thick hair of hair and I felt so thankful that almost nothing came out of my mouth just a simple "thank you" but I added to that and said "thank you so much!" She just smiled and I learned her name it was crow and she likes digging holes so she should be called rabbit. I was so glad I finally have a friend. I went back home and mother hugged me and he told me "your father is gone looking for you." I said crow saved me and my mother gave her my grandmother's necklace and the mother looked like she was going to cry. And guess who burst through the door..... it was father. I bowed my head with sorrow for my disappearance but he hugged me and I realized how worried my family was. I felt even more grateful to crow and I felt proud I showed crow around.

and we bumped into rain. Rain is my enemy and "crow is not welcome here" Rain would say. we left and I got bad for crow. It wasn't crows fault that she saved me. I think Rain should be thankful but he's always a bully.
Just not in front of his father everywhere that he is very mean. After a while I heard that she is scared of the bury mound I don't blame her I hate it too. It's where dead bodies stay and a bit later she had to go back to her home. I seal island. I got horrible I made a ground but she has to go so soon? Sometimes..... I hate my life. But I learned to be brave and not to give up. I'm now very very VERY tired so I'm off to bed so good night Diary.
