

How to Present Successful Home Learning

Use these Steps to Success to help you.

Written Home Learning e.g. Booklet/Fact file/Poster/PowerPoint		Other Home Learning e.g. Collage/Model/Painting
I have used a range of resources to gather information e.g. books, CD ROM, Internet.		I have used a range of resources to gather information e.g. books, CD ROM, Internet.
I have used this information to produce my own writing.		I have used this information to produce my artistic Home Learning.
Titles are underlined carefully with a ruler.		I have included a title.
I have listed the resources I have used including websites.		I have listed the resources I have used including websites.
I have written more than one sentence for each section.		I have taken care with the presentation of my Home Learning.
I have used pictures, drawings and maps to illustrate my work and add more information. Any pictures I have used are carefully trimmed and labelled, or hand drawn in pencil and coloured.		I am able to explain what I have made and how I made it. I am also able to share some information supported by the research I have done.
I have produced a contents page if appropriate.
I have presented writing that is neatly handwritten (in ink pen or pencil) or word-processed.
